THE M MICRO HOTEL

WEEKLY RENTAL TERMS AND HOUSE RULES

281 Nixon Street, Biloxi, MS 39530 | Phone or text 228.209.2906

Tenant: _____ Room: _____ Check-in date: ___ / ___ / ____

1. Rent and deposit

- Rent is $150 per week, paid in advance. A $200 security deposit is paid at check-in.
- Weekly rent is paid in advance and is not refunded for days you do not use.

2. Week-to-week and notice to check out

- This is a week-to-week rental. Each week stands alone. The landlord may end the tenancy at the end of any weekly term by giving 7 days' written notice, as allowed by Mississippi law.
- You must give 7 days' written notice before checking out. A dated text message or email counts as written notice.
- If you check out before your notice period ends, rent is still owed through the end of the notice period and is taken from your deposit.

3. Getting your deposit back

- Your deposit is refunded at check-out if you gave proper notice, the room is clean and undamaged, and all keys are returned.
- The deposit may be used for unpaid rent, damage beyond normal wear, cleaning, smoke or odor removal, and unreturned keys. Any amount used will be itemized in writing.
- The refund is paid when the keys are returned and the room has been checked.

4. House rules

- Single occupancy only. The room is rented to the one tenant named above. No additional occupants. No overnight guests. Visitors must leave by 10:00 PM.
- No smoking inside the building or in any room. Smoking is allowed outside only, away from doors and windows. Put out and throw away all butts properly.
- Quiet hours are 10:00 PM to 7:00 AM. Keep noise down so everyone can sleep. No loud music, parties, or disturbing others at any time.
- No firearms or other weapons on the premises.
- No illegal drugs or illegal activity on the premises.
- No pets.
- No open flames or unapproved heat sources: no candles, incense, hot plates, or space heaters that were not provided by the landlord. Do not tamper with smoke detectors, fire equipment, or exits.
- No cooking in the room. No hot plates, burners, grills, air fryers, toaster ovens, rice cookers, slow cookers, or any other cooking appliance. Do not bring or keep pots, pans, or cooking utensils in the room. Appliances provided by the landlord, such as a microwave or refrigerator, may be used as intended.
- No plates, dishes, or utensils in the bathroom. Do not wash, rinse, or store them in the bathroom sink, tub, or shower.
- Keys and locks: do not copy keys or change or add locks. A lost key is charged at replacement cost.

- Care of the room: keep it clean and report damage right away. No painting, nails, or alterations. You pay for damage beyond normal wear.

5. Landlord's rights

- The landlord may enter your room with reasonable notice for inspection, cleaning, or repairs, and at any time in an emergency or to address a safety hazard or suspected rule violation.
- Hallways and common areas may be monitored by video. There are no cameras inside rooms.
- The landlord may update these rules with 7 days' written notice.
- A violation of these rules may end your tenancy as allowed by Mississippi law. Serious violations, including illegal activity, weapons, violence, or safety hazards, may result in immediate termination, to the extent the law allows.

6. Property and liability

- The landlord is not responsible for the tenant's belongings, including loss, theft, or damage. Renter's insurance is recommended.
- To the extent permitted by law, the landlord is not liable for interruptions of utilities, internet, heating, air conditioning, or laundry.
- At check-out, remove all belongings. Items left behind will be handled according to Mississippi law.

7. General

- This is the whole agreement. Changes must be in writing. If any part is not enforceable, the rest still applies. Mississippi law governs.
- By paying rent or accepting a key after receiving these terms by paper, text, or email, you agree to them. Please also reply "I agree" or sign below.
